Men take to the kitchen

CAA holds cook-off to name the agency's top chef

What: Men's Cook hosted by the Cincinnati-Hamilton County Community Action Agency (CAA)

When: Thursday, February 17, 2011, 11:30 a.m.

Where: Cincinnati-Hamilton County Community Action Agency
Gwen L. Robinson Conference Room
1740 Langdon Farm Road
Cincinnati, OH 45237

Who: The men who work at CAA will prepare lunch for the female employees, donning chef hats and aprons as they serve their homemade creations.

The lunch spread will include a variety of fare, from moose stew to southern style soul food. It has become quite the competition to see who can prepare the best dish.

Why: Men's Cook is one of the agency's most anticipated annual events, providing an opportunity for the men of CAA to showcase their culinary skills and compete for bragging rights as top chef. The lunch brings fun and fellowship to the agency's employees who work tirelessly to assist Hamilton County's low-income population.

The Cincinnati-Hamilton County Community Action Agency is a private, non-profit organization that has served as a lifeline for low-income children and adults throughout Hamilton County for more than four decades. Delivering a seamless system of services, CAA provides assistance with employment, supportive services, home energy bills, home weatherization, early childhood education, housing, and youth programs.
