

And the Nefertiti Award winners are ...

April 16, 2011

Myrna Ethridge

The community has chosen 10 outstanding women as this year's honorees for The Cincinnati Herald's 12th Annual Nefertiti Awards Banquet. The award winners exemplify the wisdom and inner beauty of the ancient African Queen Nefertiti because of their positive contributions to the Greater Cincinnati community. The ceremony takes place on Saturday, June 4, 11 a.m. – 2 p.m at the Westin Hotel, across from Fountain Square downtown.

This year's dynamic keynote speaker is Rev. Virginia F. Brewster of Jerriel Baptist Church. Our MC will be indomitable Michelle Graves. The inspirational P. Ann Everson-Price will bring her Children's Super Choir along with Dr. Lyrica Smith's praise dancers. Vendor tables will open at 11 a.m., while guests are serenaded by firefighters Kim S. White and Michael Walton of FAOx2. Doors will open at 11:30, and there will be a pre-program featuring entertainers Jakhaari Blackmon, Marissa Moore, and 11-year-old Eliza Roberts.

Tickets are $10 each, or $100 for a table of 10, and are on sale now. For tickets, call 513-961-3331, x10 or 11. For vendor information, call 513- 961-3331, x17. Visit our website at www.TheCincinnatiHerald.com.

For more information on the winners, see the special Nefertiti Awards section in the May 28 issue of The Cincinnati Herald.
